

Energy Protection

Tree, by Roadside

A tree essence for help with protection from “energy attack”.

An essence made from a tree that grows besides a road on the hill on the way up to the Thames War Memorial.

As soon as I saw this tree, I recognized it. as being the “guard tree”, standing ready to repel any attack from any form of negative or evil energy

Affirmation: “I ask for the full protection of this tree from any form of energy attack.”
